

2012 Audioconference Series

Topics:

The Basics of Pressure Ulcer Prevention

Conflict Management: Working closely without rubbing each other the wrong way

Person-Centered Approaches to Improve Bathing Practices

Fall Management from the Case Study Perspective

Development and Implementation of a Mentoring Program for Long-term Care

Each registration entitles the facility to one (1) phone line. Multiple staff may sit in on the session using a speakerphone.

PARRI/Kendal Outreach, LLC does not receive commercial support for this program, nor do we endorse any product in association with this program.

PARRI/Kendal Outreach, LLC
1107 E Baltimore Pike
Kennett Square, PA 19348

Everyday Issues in Long Term Care: An Audioconference Series

Everyday Issues in Long Term Care – An Audioconference Series

This audioconference series aims to assist providers in a deeper examination of issues encountered in the day-to-day “happenings” within the nursing home. These sessions will touch on relevant issues to assist staff to improve resident outcomes and staff relationships.

1.0 Contact Hour for Nurses for each session

Kendal Outreach, LLC, is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Maryland Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation.

Sponsored and presented by

The Pennsylvania Restraint Reduction Initiative (PARRI)

KENDAL[®]
Outreach^{LLC}
Together, transforming the experience of aging[®]

Topics and Dates

The Basics of Pressure Ulcer Prevention

Ruth Bish, RN, BSN

Tuesday, January 24, 2012 (1:30–2:30 pm EST)

Participants will be able to:

- Identify the essential components of a comprehensive pressure ulcer risk assessment.
- Discuss the advantages of using a “bundle” of prevention interventions.
- Recognize the importance of a program to identify and immediately treat red areas.

Conflict Management: Working closely without rubbing each other the wrong way

Sadie Mitchell, PhD, RN

Tuesday, February 7, 2012 (1:30–2:30 pm EST)

Participants will be able to:

- Identify types and sources of workplace conflicts.
- Discuss various conflict management styles.
- Recognize the weaknesses and strengths of individual’s preferred conflict management style.
- Explore appropriate conflict management styles for various workplace situations.

Person-Centered Approaches to Improve Bathing Practices (back by popular demand)

Janet Davis, BA, ACC

Tuesday, February 21, 2012 (1:30–2:30 pm EST)

Participants will be able to:

- Identify common elements embedded in institutional bathing practices that contribute to negative outcomes.
- Examine potential triggers of behavioral symptoms during the bathing process.
- Identify successful strategies and interventions for a person-centered approach to bathing.

Fall Management from the Case Study Perspective

Karen Russell, RN

Tuesday, March 6, 2012 (1:30–2:30 pm EST)

Participants will be able to:

- Review the responsibilities associated with falls in the nursing home setting.
- Identify common intrinsic and extrinsic risk factors that impact an individual’s ability to be safe.
- Analyze one case study to reveal fall risk factors that will guide the staff in the implementation of appropriate individualized interventions.

Development and Implementation of a Mentoring Program for Long-term Care

Alice Moore, RN, LNHA, MPA

Tuesday, March 20, 2012 (1:30-2:30 pm EST)

Participants will be able to:

- Describe key knowledge, skills, and resources required for development of a mentoring program.
- Express and evaluate how to apply elements of a mentoring program within an organization.
- Design goals of a mentoring program into a program design for sustainability.

Register online at:

<http://tiny.cc/audioconferences2012> (scroll down left side of screen and click on “Audioconference”)

Fee: $132/session; $500 for the series

Special pricing for Pennsylvania facilities & COLLAGE Members:
$99/session, $400 for the series

Cutoff date for registration is seven (7) days prior to each program.

This program will be “paperless.” Handouts will be emailed prior to the program. Please make sure you provide an email address that will accept attachments when you register.